

PERSONS, PLACES AND SCENES PROMINENT IN THE NEWS OF A WORLD'S DOINGS DAY BY DAY

PLAYMATES OF A SUNSHINY DAY
Parker Curtin Risley, Misses Priscilla Alden Robinson and Emily Penrose Rosengarten with dog, Hannah. Having your picture taken is a serious business, as their expressions show.

A QUARTET OF FUTURE DEBUTANTES

MAGNIFICENT HOTEL DE VILLE, OR CITY HALL, IN BELGIAN CITY OF YPRES
The photograph was taken before bombardment by heavy guns of Germans. Celebrated before the war as one of the stateliest specimens of Flemish architecture.

HOTEL DE VILLE AFTER BOMBARDMENT
Now only the battered hulk of a building remains. Its roof has fallen in, its towers have broken off or collapsed and fire and smoke have befouled its smoothly laid walls.

A GLANCE AT LATE WINTER-EARLY SPRING STYLES AS REVEALED ON THE POPULAR PROMENADE CLOSE TO THE WAVES OF THE NEW JERSEY SHORE
For trimmings and white spots show no signs of decreasing popularity. And the veils add a coquettish touch and at all out of place where the sea breeze blows.
Miss Marguerite Caperton, daughter of Rear Admiral W. B. Caperton, U. S. N., and Miss Pauline Dixon, debutante daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Dixon, at Atlantic City.
An afternoon affair constructed to resist chilly winds, and a neat little sport suit, with novel strap effects, and walking shoes with cloth tops to correspond.
